Allons à Vermilion

Ask around where to get the best Cajun cooking and they'll answer Vermilion Parish. You have to eat, so why not come to the "Most Cajun Place on Earth"* where we'll prepare a meal for you that will make you wish you had a bigger stomach! Feast on fresh seafood straight from our gulf waters or on a plate of crawfish etouffée made the same way grandma did. From over-stuffed po-boys and raw oysters to fresh boiled crawfish, shrimp and crabs, we have it all and more.

Sure, we're known for our food, but there's more here than a great meal. Our towns date back to the 1800's and were the settling grounds for many of the French Acadiens after their expulsion from Nova Scotia. Cajun French is still spoken in several areas of the parish. A number of immigrants from European, Asian, Hispanic and African descent also call Vermilion Parish home.

The Cajun Corridor Scenic Byway crosses our parish and links the towns of Delcambre, Erath, Abbeville, Kaplan and Gueydan to reveal quaint towns, cattle, sugarcane and rice farms, waterfowl, tree lined bayous, museums, locally-owned eating establishments and much more. A trip down Hwy. 82 to the southern part of our parish will bring you to fresh and saltwater marshes, some of the best birding in America, alligators and other wildlife all mixed with small communities along the way.

We also know how to throw a party for anyone who wants to join in! Whether it's shrimp, ducks, flowers or eggs, we celebrate with great music, delicious Cajun food and plenty of dancing in the streets. There's always room for a few more people, so come on down.

We're located just minutes south of Lafayette and west of New Iberia. Come for a visit and experience all the pleasures of true Cajun Country. Your adventure awaits you!

*According to the US Census Bureau, Vermilion Parish is "The Most Cajun Place on Earth" with nearly 50% of the citizens claiming Cajun ancestry.
